Weights

Everything Everything

Tell, your, friends not, to live, like,
They are, with, terrible weights,
Come with rope to, hold up,
The bridge, oh, the weights,
The tiniest weights, grow, to

Blind by daybreak, splintered, diamond matter will you
Make me lucid why'd you have to double my weights?
Double the weights, double the Travel over nothing boy I'm telling you it's

Time, to live alone yeah, time, to live alone
You did oh, but you did, what you had to, and live alone.

(So come on) Coldest exit lurcher,
There's a bottle on the Fire, sleep in cinders add the burden up the weights
Double the weights, double the,
Heaviest of moments, all together now it's Damn near unconvincing, add the burden up the Weights, double the weights, double the

Time, to live alone yeah,
Time, to live alone
You did oh, but you did,
What you had to, and live alone

Friend, don't break the code,
A tiny part, a tiny part remains.

I, know how it starts,
And now I know
I know how it ends
I know just how it ends
I know how it all ends
I know how it all
