

Heels, With No Backs

John Kloberdanz

You don't think style matters to me
And for the most part that's true
Dresses or pants, sweaters or shirts
They all seem to look good on you
There are so many different fashions these days
But today you look especially nice
When I lower my eyes and look down at the floor
Honey, I know I don't have to think twice

You've had a long long day
Put your feet up and relax
I love the way that you walk in those heels and no backs

Did you think that I was feeling downcast
Or that I'd dropped a coin on the street
Maybe I had problems sleeping last night
Or I was back here staring at your seat
Let me watch you as you move around
I'll imagine that I'm young again
Let me kneel, let me kiss the ground
I'm getting far far too old to pretend

You've had a long long day
Put your feet up and relax
I love the way that you walk in those heels and no backs
