Not Good Enough

Keiko Necesario

He's the guy I wanna be with, and every night I always pray. Asking God why this feels so wrong.
He's the guy that I'm in love with but he's too good for me.
Oh, why this feels so wrong?

Trying hard to put the pieces of (..?..)
That I've been working on for so long.

Why am I so afraid?
Always don't know what to do..
Maybe I'm a fool for falling to deep on you.
Would you ever talk to me if I come up to you?
And would you ever notice me if I walk around you?

Hanging by around to see you, looking at your smile.
You're shining like the sun.
The light inside my world.

Trying hard to put the pieces of (..?..)
That I've been working on for so long.

Why am I so afraid?
Always don't know what to do..
Maybe I'm a fool for falling to deep on you.
Would you ever talk to me if I come up to you?
And would you ever notice me if I walk around you?

It's not just a feeling and it's not a dream.
And I'm sure that you are the only one for me.

Why am I so afraid?
Always don't know what to do..
Maybe I'm a fool for falling to deep on you.
Would you ever talk to me if I come up to you?
And would you ever notice me if I walk around you?
If I walked around you..
