

Turn of the Tide

Roxette

If you really need some water pray for rain
If you're waking up cold make a fire inside
If you want a tree that leads to heaven plant the seeds that grow
If you need something to believe in
 To the turn of the tide
 To the glow of the moon
 To the sound of the rain
 To the sweet scent of dew
 I've been walking alone
 Thinking about me and you
Love will never be easy how hard I try to cover up my crying, to wipe the tears from my eyes
If you really need somebody I hope I'm close behind
 To put my arms around your world
 To the turn of the tide
 To the glow of the moon
 To the sound of the rain
 To the sweet scent of dew
 I've been walking alone
 Thinking about me and you
 To the turn of the tide
 To the glow of the moon
 To the sound of the rain
 To the sweet sweet scent of you
 I've been walking alone
I've been thinking about me and you
