

Pure Massacre

Silverchair

People dying for no reason at all
Age is no difference or if you're large or small Families been torn apart
Doesn't have to be this way
Some people, just have no heart
It's happening every day Pure massacre
Pure massacre
Pure massacre
Pure massacre Machine guns pumping, hearts thumping
Death is all around, yeah
People crying for freedom, oh yeah
No one hears the sound Pure massacre
Pure massacre
Pure massacre
Pure massacre, alright There's people crying
There's people dying
But someone's taken it all, yeah Machine guns pumping, hearts thumping
Death is all around
People crying for freedom
No one hears the sound Pure massacre
Pure massacre
Pure massacre
Pure massacre Pure massacre
Pure massacre, yeah
Pure massacre
Pure massacre It's gonna be
A pure massacre, yeah
