Always There

Saga

I'm not sure but I've been told
The winds of change blow hot and cold
I've had my share of ups and downs
You would just send in the clowns
Hovering like a satellite
You covered me both day and night
You can see the shape I'm in
It's no wonder why I wear this grin
I'm still here because of youYou got me through it when I was spent
You were always there, you were always there
It's no mistake you were heaven sent
You were always there, you were always thereIf life's a blend of light and shade
That must mean I've got it made
There's something that I can't replace
The way it feels, face to face
The memory's there, night and day
Far too strong to fade away
You were there right from the start
Found a way into my heartI'm still here because of you
You got me through it when I was spent
You were always there, you were always there
It's no mistake you were heaven sent
You were always there, you were always there
And you will be with me till the end
You were always there, you were always there
