Come and Go

Rich Homie Quan

Fantasy sexual dream prostitution solicitation intoxication seduction
The unknown the endeavour to achieve sex
Walks into a room sees the naked stare
Feels the leering eyes eyes are everywhere
Thoughts that will consume every wanting fool
Thoughts that come to soon cheaper as a rule
Everything she feels suddenly concealed
Walking in high heels making dreams come real
Everyone who thought he was in control
Looking for cheap love this love is for fools
When she comes she comes and goes
Where she goes well no one knows
If you think you're in control well she took you for the treasure
When she comes she comes and goes
Where she goes well no one knows
If you think she's just your fool well you're paying for the pleasure of her love
All the wasted smiles nothing left to feel
All the lovers lies nothing here is real
All the times they thought they were in control
As she leaves the room nothing left but fools
When she comes she comes and goes
Where she goes well no one knows
If you think you're in control well you're paying for the pleasure
Everytime she comes everytime she runs
Everytime you feel something is concealed
Suddenly you know when she's letting go
Suddenly you sell well she does it for her pleasure
When she comes she comes and goes
Where she goes well no one knows
If you think you're in control well she took you for the treasure
Everytime she comes everytime she runs
Everytime you feel something is concealed
Suddenly you know, when she's letting go
Then you finally see well she does it for her pleasure
When she comes.....
