

We Were Sad but Now We're Rebuilding

Bear vs. Shark

Complete the syntax rearrange my thought process in time, every point will form a line prenatal cycle while you're pushing the jack again and you backed up much too far, too far and we thought this movement fell short then theres a concrete wall This is a parade there are the stars in your eyes this is an ending thought that pushes my feet This is the moonlight and these are the stars in your eyes and these are the times that reflect inside your smile and i thought we came too close to the ground the zeppelin failed to push you away the greco roman doors have been opened to the thailand traders but i would never trade you in for an idea without just cause nail us to this cross with a d.n.a. photo album of the times we lost live in the earth again road maps as eyes
i am alive and leaving
