America

Deuce

They wanna see blood
They wanna see hate
Like a needle in your veins
Like a sickness with no name
In a world that's insane
What's America to blame?
When you pray for a change to a God with no face
They wanna see blood
They wanna see hate
Like a fucking AK
It's going up in flames
In a world that's insane
What's America to blame?
When you pray for change to a God with no face
You can't tell me what to say
'Cuz I got one religion
And I've got one decision
It's a big fuck you
I keep spitting in your face
Every month and every day
Every time you hear my name
My middle fingers up too
You think I own you
But I ain't got no room for these hoes
' Cuz they're no good
I ain't living by your rules
Your getting old dude
Full of liquor you're blowing
And you wanna be noticed
But you're dying so lonely
So when they point the finger
You flip one back
And say fuck that
FUCK THAT
So when they point the finger
We'll flip one back
And say fuck that
FUCK THAT
They wanna see blood

They wanna see hate
Like a needle in your veins
Like a sickness with no name
In a world that's insane
What's America to blame?
When you pray for a change to a God with no face
They wanna see blood
They wanna see hate
Like a fucking AK
It's going up in flames
In a world that's insane
What's America to blame?
When you pray for a change to a God with no face
Eenie meenie minie moe
Each one is gonna know
That you're time is coming soon

'Cuz there ain't enough room
In the world for us two
Yeah I hate to break the news
But Ima break it in this musical
To let the world know who
Who you've been using
Who you're abusing
In the suits you've been fooling
But you know that you're useless
So he's been acting so ruthless
Deep inside your just ruined
'Cuz I keep on moving
To show you the truth bitch
So when they point the finger
You flip one back
And say fuck that
FUCK THAT
So when they point the finger
We'll flip one back
And say fuck that
FUCK THAT
They wanna see blood
They wanna see hate
Like a needle in your veins
Like a sickness with no name
In a world that's insane
What's America to blame?
When you pray for a change to a God with no face

They wanna see blood
They wanna see hate
Like a fucking AK
It's going up in flames
In a world that's insane
What's America to blame?
When you pray for a change to a God with no face
WHY CAN'T YOU DIE?!
MOTHERFUCKER JUST DIE!?
NO MORE GOODBYES?!
MOTHERFUCKER JUST DIE!?
They wanna see blood
They wanna see hate
Like a needle in your veins
Like a sickness with no name
So when they point the finger
You flip one back
And say fuck that
FUCK THAT
They wanna see your blood
They wanna see your hate
Like a fucking AK
It's going up in flames
So when they point the finger
We flip one back
And say fuck that
