

Jean Jacket

The Summer Set

We were younger than ever
Sitting in the back of a corvette
And all I remember
Was lying naked in a summer sweat And I was falling in love
While you where fighting the weekend
We were on top of the world
But you don't come around here anymore Whenever I look back now
Forever nineteen somehow
'Cause when I put on my jean jacket
I still think about you
I wish I couldn't drive you home
Listening to Thunder Road
'Cause when I put on my jean jacket
I still think about you
Hey where did you go? We were younger than ever
Doing one ten on the boulevard
Swore we'd never surrender
We found faith in a stolen car And I was falling in love
While you where fighting the weekend
We were on top of the world
But you don't come around here anymore Whenever I look back now
Forever nineteen somehow
'Cause when I put on my jean jacket
I still think about you
I wish I couldn't drive you home
Listening to Thunder Road
'Cause when I put on my jean jacket
I still think about you
Hey where did you go? Go
'Cause when I put on my jean jacket
Put on my jean jacket
Hey where did you go?
Go
'Cause when I put on my jean jacket
Put on my jean jacket
Hey where did you go? And I was falling in love
While you where fighting the weekend
We were on top of the world
But you don't come around here anymore Whenever I look back now

Forever nineteen somehow
'Cause when I put on my jean jacket
I still think about you
I wish I couldn't drive you home
Listening to Thunder Road
'Cause when I put on my jean jacket
I still think about you
Hey where did you go?Go
'Cause when I put on my jean jacket
Put on my jean jacket
Hey where did you go?
Go
'Cause when I put on my jean jacket
Put on my jean jacket
Hey where did you go?
