

Carry Me

The Isaacs

Step by step, Iâ€™ve stumbled through the desert
Blinded by the sun, how can I stand?
Just a drop of cool refreshing water
I need a touch from You Lord, take my hand

Carry me across the lonely desert
Hold your hurting child to your breast
Dry these tears that fill my eyes, forever
Carry me unto my home of rest

Troubled waters are splashing all around me
Surely in a moment, I will drown
Wrap Your arms around meâ€¦ Lord, Iâ€™m sinking
And Youâ€™re my only hope, I need You now

Carry me across the raging waters
Hold your hurting child to your breast
Dry these tears that fill my eyes, forever
Carry me unto my home of rest

For I know that in Your arms, I will find safety
And nothing of this world can harm me there
Through the darkness, always lead me Lordâ€¦ Iâ€™m lost without Your love
Help me make it to my home above

Carry me up through the clouds to glory
Hold me in Your arms, I need to rest
Dry these tears that fill my eyes, forever
Carry me unto my home of rest
