

Dirty Old Man

Miss Li

It's so content of your blouse that makes me arose,
Instead of grab my arm.
He's a dirty old man with a beer in his hand,
He thinks he's got the charm.

Old dirty men, dirty men don't you have a real life?
Old dirty men, shouldn't you be home with your wife?

He stumbles when he walks and he spits when he talks,
He smells like cheap cologne.
He's a married old man with the zipper all way down,
He should have stayed at home.

X2

Old dirty men, dirty men don't you have a real life?
Old dirty men, shouldn't you be home with your wife?
Cause you too old to be here with only eighteen years old.
And what are you like fifty-five, so don't you even try.

And you too old to be here with only eighteen years old.
And what are you like fifty-five, and so don't you even try.

X4

Dirty old man?
