All That I Had (Outtake)

Paul Westerberg

King and queen
Full and twin
Leave the key
Its time to move again
Brand new lease
New set of locks
This end up
Ten city blocks
I gave it up for a room in a box
And I gave all that I had
Its taken some bad times to show me
I gave all that I had
Its taken some bad times to show me
Im doing fine
Im doing fine
Life is simple or its impossible
You always half empty
You aint never half full (even though? even now?)
Me and yesterday hopped on a track
I swear to God neither of us ever coming back
And I gave all that I had
Its taken some bad times to show me
I gave all that I had
Its taken some bad times to show me
Im doing fine
Im doing fine
And I gave all that I can
Every time
Didnt follow my dreams
I lost the map
I live my fantasy instead
Till I found it was a trap
Gave a life, got a living
Hey thats all right
All is forgiven
I gave all that I had
Its taken some bad times to show me
I gave all that I had
Its taken some bad times to show me

I gave all that I had
Its taken some bad times to show me
I gave all that I had
Its taken some bad times to show me
