Break to Survive

Seasons After

My wodrs have been twisted
Too long to be resisted
Letting you know how I feel
Something I know that you need
A path to your beating
Is just what is leading
You left disaster uphill
You left disaster uphillYou like to think that it's your world
You like to think that you can turn and walk awayWhy did I never see the disguise?
Why did I never call you out on your lies?
How did I miss watching your eyes?
And now I'm needing a break
A break to survive
A path to completely (No shit)
Exposing your weakness (Inside)
Vengeance for scars left behind
Something I know that I need
Approaching discretely
Til all have completely
You left disaster uphill
You left disaster uphillYou like to think that it's your world
You like to think that you can turn and walk awayWhy did I never see the disguise?
Why did I never call you out on your lies?
How did I miss watching your eyes?
And now I'm needing a break
A break to survive
SurviveSURVIVE!
Why did I never see the disguise?
Why did I never call you out on your lies?
How did I miss watching your eyes?
And now I'm needing a break
A break to survive
And now I'm needing a break
A break to survive
