

Sally Ride

Janelle Monáe

Take me to the river
My soul is looking for a word from God
Ooh, God
Like a rose in the cold will I rise
I'm packing my space suit
And I'm taking my shit and moving to the moon
Where there're no rules
Wake up, Mary
Have you heard the news
You got to wake up, Mary
You got the right to choose
I tried and heard the pride
But the way the stars look into my eyes tonight
Tell me who can , who can I trust?

[Bridge]
To get lost in your thoughts
Is a very very complex thought?
And the things that you thought are surprising
It's the way you believe
That becomes the very thing you see
Take a ride in the sky
It's just calling

But all your friends are gone
And the trees will burn while the comets play on
Tell me who can, who can I trust?

I wanna fly
Fly
All the way
To the moon
To the stars
Ohhh!

[Hook]
Ride, ride, ride
Sally won't you
Ride, ride, ride

[Spoken x2]

I know you love me but I'm still gone x3

I got to make my peace

I got to move on

[Janelle Monae]

Just wake up, Mary

Have you heard the news?

Oh, just wake up, Mary

You got the right to choose

Just wake up, Mary,

There's some amazing news

Just wake up, Mary

You got the right to choose

[Janelle Monae]

Real love

I wanna feel the real love

True love, ain't nobody got to steal love

Wanna know what it really means to be in love

Baby...free love

Sometimes I just wanna get away

Going on Going on right now.
