

Ruin Your Day

Passion Pit

I saw it from afar
Knew it was coming
That's just
How you are And I never thought I'd hear you say
Don't let your worries ruin your day
Don't let your worries ruin your day Fast, faster,
The fastest yet
Besting my best
Is a test on a bet And I never thought I'd hear you say
Don't let your worries ruin your day
Don't let your worries ruin your day All of my Friends were gone
I stayed home drinking
It all felt so wrong But my god I never thought I'd hear you say
Don't let your worries ruin your day
Don't let your worries ruin your day Drunk and battered
I punched the ground
I left the bar
There was no one around Stumbling home you still called me to say
Don't let your worries ruin your day
Don't let your worries ruin your day
