

Sleep In

Telekinesis

Don't forget that it's a feeling
You know that anyway
Sunlight is revealing
The sun is just a fake
There's no fear of silence
We've got Mr. Bell to thank
I forget the feeling
I forget to look away I don't wanna wake up for night
Won't wake up for night
I don't wanna wake up for night
Won't wake up for night
The future is a gift
If you take away what is left
I don't care what you wear
I don't care, but it is I don't wanna wake up for night
Won't wake up for night
I don't wanna wake up for night
Won't wake up for night
I don't feel so small
I can see the sunrise on my wall
Holding the key to the broken bones
I can see the sunrise on my wall
I don't feel so small
I can see the sunrise on my wall
Holding the key to the broken bones
I can see the sunrise on my wall
