Daybreak

Silverwind

Daybreak, coming!
New day, dawning!
Shadows are fading swiftly from my heart
There's a new expression on my face now
The pain's erased now.

Refrain:
Jesus! You are the morning sunshine!
Jesus! My love for you grows stronger from day to day.
Shining into my heart a new song.
Jesus! You are the light that chases the night away.

Can you see it, I can't hide it.
Changes are taking place inside me now
Yesterday has stolen my tomorrows
But now your love grows

Refrain x 3
