

Please Don't Tell My Lover

Empires

Oh my dear, what have we here
An endless drift and a silent affair
I can't understand, what's in my heart
    All was bliss, all has gone dark
Since I killed my idols, melted down my vinyl,
    Made a black hole to another world
    Got homicidal, now my heart ain't in it
    I don't like to fake it
    Got a part time wonder
    Please don't ever tell my lover
    Please don't ever tell my lover
    Please don't ever tell my lover
Please don't ever tell my loverAnd on I've went, conceal and repent
    I've lost the charm and the spark I had left
    The hole has a dance alone in my chest
    Every hour my brain is undressed
And so I killed my idols, they're dead in the vinyl
    Oh, the piece came out of my soul it's a recital
    Now she won't understand
    The dark side of my heart
    All the part time wonders
    Please don't ever tell my lover
    Please don't ever tell my lover
    Please don't ever tell my lover
    Please don't ever tell my loverAlright now
    Every now and then I wander back
    Every time I keep comin' back
Every now and then I wander backPlease don't ever tell my lover
    Please don't ever tell my lover
    Please don't ever tell my lover
    Please don't ever tell my lover
