

Happy Birthday

Lenny Kravitz

This morning is a special morning
We're gonna party all day long
We're gonna celebrate the day that you were born
And we will start right with this song Happy, happy, happy birthday
Happy birthday to you
Happy birthday to you All of your friends will come together
And all your family will be here
We're gonna cook you all the food we know you love
And wash it down with lots of beer There comes a time for cake and candles
You make a wish for all the year
And with all the breath you have you blow that fire out
And we will all stand up and cheer Happy, happy, happy birthday
Happy birthday to you
Happy birthday to you Now comes the time to open presents
Whether they hand me or they bought
They will be filled with all the love we have for you
And all our individual thoughts Happy, happy, happy birthday
Happy birthday to you
Happy birthday to you Happy, happy, happy birthday
Happy birthday to you
Happy birthday to you
Happy birthday to you Happy, happy, happy birthday
Happy birthday to you
