I Am

Rusty Goodman

When it was dark, in my heart.
You brought light to me.
A Child of darkness,became a child of light.
When my soul was so dry, Oh and I needed drink
the waters of life you became for me

I am, I am you said to me,
I am Alpha, I am Omega, the in between
I am, I am, you said to me
I'll be what it takes to meet you needs.

You were the widows crucible and Eliah's meat
You were the shelter for old Noah,
A shepherd for the sheep.
And in the fire you were the forth man,
and a cloud by day, the fire by night for your children to lead the way.

I am, I am you said to me,
I am the bread of life, take and eat
I am, I am, you said to me,
and I'll be what it takes to meet your needs.
I'll even go, by way on Calvary.
