

Rapture in Death

Depraved Plague

Longing for all this to end
Find the pinnacle of existence
Breeching the thin line between
Your worthless life and your death

Feeling that you don't belong
While you have mortality
Being reborn on other side
Where you need to return now

Can't you feel that Pull away from
This life you know
Impending Death

Rapture in Death
Embrace The End
Rapture in Death
Embrace The End

Rapture in Death for all your time
Embrace the end of all your life
Rapture in Death
Embrace The End

You will be back very soon
As a living corpse you rot
Trapped in this place that you reside
Until eternity comes to an end (x2 after break)

Breaking down the wall between
What is life and what is hell
Living again on this earth
To take all those who are like you
