Recovery

Jon Wayne and The Pain

Recovery, recovery, recovery, recovery
People say I need some recovery
They can't seem to handle my energy
If you hate me, stand up in front of me
You can meet my God
When the sun shines down
I will always be there
When you wear the crown
They will come to defeat you
Recovery, recovery, recovery
Stick it to me, fear and ferocity
I have uncuffed your animosity
Ain't no doubt there's something inside of me
That can't be left alone
When the sun shines down
I will always be there
When you wear the crown
They will come to defeat you
If you turn back now
They will make you a believer
You'll be a face in the crowd
But you'll never be a leader
Oh, yeah
Oh, yeah, oh yeah
Oh, yeah, oh yeah
People say I need some recovery
They can't seem to handle my energy
If you hate me, stand up in front of me
You can meet my god, yeah
When the sun shines down
I will always be there
When you wear the crown
They will come to defeat you
If you turn back now
They will make you a believer
You'll be a face in the crowd
But you'll never be a leader
Recovery, recovery, recovery
Recovery, recovery
