

The Prophet

Emperor

... and as if awoken from eternal sleep he sought a mentor for he no longer knew his position "It is time after miracles
and I am its prophet I have not come to cure but to bear witness to decay" "It is the place where blood and soil lie beyond the boundaries of the sun
and I am its prophet
I cast the shadow
I absorb the light" "I am the prophet
I bear witness
I absorb
I cry" "As I die
I shall burst wide open
As I die
I shall release the apocalypse my prophecy
Thus, I hold on to faith
Thus, I keep the hope That it will prosper and devour" "It is time after miracles
and I am its prophet
but to bear witness to decay" ... and pain joined his urge to perceive
