The Sleepy Jackson

You're so cold that you don't even know it
Your love is so cold, you're frozen in love yeah
Your house has got one foot in the graveyard
You're dead alone. your dead alone You're so cold that you won't even know it
Your love is so cold your frozen in love yeah
You're family's got one foot in the graveyard
Your dead alone. your dead alone These roads they sing like bats i know
Their eyes are tightly sewn, like some preists i know Oh yeah Wildcat regime it's always back in scene
I know i was only seventeen
I lost an eye it was caught in the graveyard
Your dead alone What you want
Is this what you want
Oh yeah
Is this what you want Is this wat you want
Oh come on Is it what you want
Is it what you want
Is it wat you want
What you want
