

No One Knows

Black Bomb A

No one, No one, No one, No
No one can tell me why, why
People confound pleasure with rape
If the walls of these cellars
Could speak, could tell us the truth now
Now, I want truth Always the same scenes,
You dream about it
Always the same plans,
Envy is so strong
Unfortunate fate and free hate obsession is so big No one, No
No one can tell me why, why
Kids become criminals
Next door, your own daughter molested like an animal
An easy prey You 'll deserve the hate you create You'd played with someone's fate
The broken lives you carry on
Your worst nightmares, they will become but No one, No
No one can tell me how
Human being can fall so deep
When man becomes a pig
And that rape becomes a rule Shame on you, Shame on you Shame on you, Shame on you Ref:
No one knows
facing powerless lost innocence
My hate grows slow
Your sister's maybe screaming next door No one, No
No one can tell me why
People confound pleasure with rape
If the walls of these cellars
Could speak, could tell us the truth now
Now, I want truth A no man's land for human right
Where respect deals only with violence
A sad rule for a non-sense game
Whose victim each time the same Ref:
No one knows
facing powerless lost innocence
My hate grows slow

Your sister's maybe screaming next door
No one, No
No one can tell me how
Human being can fall so deep
When man becomes a pig
And that rape becomes a rule
Shame on you, Shame on you
Shame on you, Shame on you
