

Under My Skin

Skillet

When I feel you close to me
It's easy to believe
To the depths and back again
To find that I'm still needing Feel the fear dissipate
When you are everything you are
Feel my soul come awake
You carry me away When I hurt, when I bleed
You're holding me
Feel you scratching at the surface
Under my skin When I hurt, when I bleed
You're holding me
Feel you scratching at the surface
Under my skin Oh, under my skin
Oh, under my skin Oh the sweet serenity
I'm beautifully addicted
You are more than I can take
I crave you undiluted You calm the ache, I come awake
When you are everything you are
Feel the fear dissipate
You carry me away When I hurt, when I bleed
You're holding me
Feel you scratching at the surface
Under my skin When I hurt, when I bleed
You're holding me
Feel you scratching at the surface
Under my skin Oh, under my skin
Oh, under my skin
Oh, yeah Could I be lost?
Could I disappear?
Could I be lost?
Would you find me here?
Could I be lost in a secret place?
Could I rest in the shadow of your face Oh the sweet
(Could I be lost, could I disappear?)
Serenity
(Could I be lost, would you find me here?)
Beautifully
(Could I be lost in a secret place?)
A part of me

(Could I rest in the shadow of your face?)When I hurt, when I bleed

You're holding me

Feel you scratching at the surface

Under my skinWhen I hurt, when I bleed

You're holding me

Feel you scratching at the surface

Under my skinOh, under my skin

Oh, under my skin

Oh, under my skin
