

I Wanna Live

Bare Jr.

Valerie was such a honest gal
Always giving her body out
To anyone who'll listen to the reasons
Why her soul is dimmedAfter every word, I heard enough
I turned away, turned her out
She ran out on the rail of the balcony
As if to say, hey look at meEverybody's looking
And everyone could see
That's wish dead, her hands slipped and
As she fell, twisted and flipped, she saidHey, wait I wanna live, it's too late
Hey, wait I wanna live, it's too late
Hey, wait I wanna live, it's too late
Hey, wait I wanna liveHey, wait I wanna live, it's too late
Hey, wait I wanna live, it's too late
Hey, wait I wanna live, it's too late
Hey, wait I wanna liveShe landed on a car and her head was split
She had broken her back and her lower lip
But they put her back together and said she'd live
She did, now see there's a point hereHey, wait I wanna live, it's too late
Hey, wait I wanna live, it's too late
Hey, wait I wanna live, it's too late
Hey, wait I wanna liveHey, wait I wanna live, it's too late
Hey, wait I wanna live, it's too late
Hey, wait I wanna live, it's too late
Hey, wait I wanna liveHey, wait I wanna live
Hey, wait I wanna live
Hey, wait I wanna live
Hey, wait I wanna live
