Crocodile Song

Janis Ian

There was a lady name of Annie May
She fell in love at the zoo one day
That crocodile with the big white smile
Stole her very heart awayThe courtship was brief but quite intense
Once he got under the barbed wire fence
On the honeymoon night, she turned on the light
And said Darling, meaning no offenseGood God Almighty, those teeth are huge
No way Ill do the hokey poky with you
So they went to the dentist, who pulled all but two
Aint it amazing what love can do
Aint it amazing what love can doThey had a son and named him Rocky, of course
He fell for a gal on the police force
She was impressed with his bullet proof vest
So they let the romance run its courseThey rented a room at the hotel Ritz
They sat on the edge of the bed and kissed
She took off her blues, he took off his shoes
It was then she almost called it quitsShe said Good God Almighty, those nails are huge
No hanky panky or its jail for you
Do he pulled them all out
Just as fast as he could chew
Aint it amazing what love can do
Aint it amazing what love can doI swear every word of my tale is true
You better be careful, it could happen to you
Nobody knows where true love grows
Til they stand in someone elses shoesGood God Almighty, its a funny old world
Boys will be boys and girlsll be girls
The whole darn thing is just one big zoo
And its amazing what love can do
Its amazing what love can do
Its amazing what love can do
