Cool That Lion

Aaron Kamm & The One Drops

In the canyon of corruption
And in the eyes of the evil one
N in the throat of the devil
And in the belly of the vergin

You better flow like a river
Flow like a river... down... south a way...
You better cool that lion, cool that lion i say I say..

And in the heart of the wanderer
And in the eyes of the evil one N in the throat of the devil
And in the belly of the vergin

You better flow like a river
Flow like a river... down... south a way...
You better cool that lion, cool that lion i say I say..

And with the heart of anotha dont hurt yo brotha, with your soul you could lift hu go save your sister i say hay ay..

You better flow like a river
Flow like a river... down... south a way...
You better cool that lion, cool that lion i say I say..

And your heart yes! Your heart shall prevail.
And your heart yes! Your heart shall prevail.
Bwoiyo!!!

Cool that lion... easy now rasta... there are many impostas... tryin to find a way, lurkin... for ways to bring you down, searchin... they care not about the warrior within... for we pose a threat to the establishment.. to the powers that run this crazy world...we modern day sages of lyrical pages.. who speak about fear about this... whole system built on bottom line basics... the almighty, crisp and clean, no longer green, Dolla Dolla bill yall... the same paper we will burn for heat, when this walls fall... maybe then we'll stop dyin in this streets... for nothin, over nothin, still I got nothin but love!!! For love is the key that will set us free... cool that lion... we spread wisdom, truth, comin from our hearts and souls... they keep lyin, keep tryin to keep us deaf, dumb, and blind... for they only speak from their deep pockets... soul intent to be makin those pokets deeper... while the lint multiplies in mine, and we find ways to survive, in this land made of contraindications... it seems i see more homeless children, decaying buildin, senseless killin, cemetery fillin, less and less willingness to do anything for anyone other than self, for anything other than financial wealth. This does nothing for our mental health...listen...
