

Coma

Eighteen Visions

On a bed of rusted nails I lay
Just waiting for the sun to fadeWell, I try to escape this
But I'm lost inside, I'm lost forever
Well, I try to escape this
But I've lost my mind, so God please save meWell, I slide away into the night
Well, I slide away, am I dreamin' again?I sit and suffer, I've been waitin' forever
Oh, whoa, oh, whoa and I think it's over now
I sit and suffer, I've been waitin' forever
Oh, whoa, oh, whoa and I'm in a coma nowMy head is racing through the night
Comatose don't feel alrightWell, I've got an obsession
But for the pain inside and it's destruction
Well, I've got an obsession
And now the pain is gone so God please save meWell, I slide away into the night
Well, I slide away, am I dreamin' again?I sit and suffer, I've been waitin' forever
Oh, whoa, oh, whoa and I think it's over now
I sit and suffer, I've been waitin' forever
Oh, whoa, oh, whoa and I'm in a coma nowAnd now I'm comatose again
Well, I slide away, well, I slide awayI think I'm in a comaI sit and suffer, I've been waitin' forever
Oh, whoa, oh, whoa and I think it's over now
I sit and suffer, I've been waitin' forever
Oh, whoa, oh, whoa and I'm in a coma nowOh, whoa, oh, whoa
Oh, whoa, oh, whoa
