

Set in Stone

Dehumanized

So it was written
By the hand of a god
Mighty vows
Wisdom
Shall be destroyed

Into stones these words are burnt
Into stones these words are burnt
It takes the power
Of man and gold
To unravel
The passages set in stone

Recognize the rage in this society
Unholy bastard
Your words mean nothing to me

Into stones these words are burnt
Into stones these words are burnt
It takes the power
Of man and gold
To unravel
The passages set in stone
And we will be
The ones to question your indignities
Your rationale
Is complete in every single way
And we will be
The ones to question your indignities
Your rationale
Is complete in every single way
