Crawling

Kosheen

He looks like me
But not so haunted
Eyes like the sea
In storm
In torment
How can a body so frail
Contain this spirit
This creature I seeWe're taking an avalanche
And lifting it up again
I've been high enough
To get to where I wanna go (oh)
And living another day
Won't keep me out of touch
I'll find you some day
Got to get you out of this somehow I knowHe looks right through me
So unprotected
His only legacy
Returned
Rejected
So young so free
So old and ridden
Oh what you seeWe're taking an avalanche
And lifting it up again
I've been high enough
To get to where I wanna go (oh)
And living another day
Won't keep me out of touch
I'll find you some day
Got to get you out of this somehow I knowHe's nothing like me
So wrong and wretched
Your safe reality
Is living in sketches
And live out happiness
With no explanation
And peer out at the worldWe're taking an avalanche
And lifting it up again
I've been high enough
To get to where I wanna go (oh)
And living another day

Won't keep me out of touch
I'll find you some day
Got to get you out of this somehow I know(He looks like me
But not so haunted
Eyes like the sea
In storm
In torment
Contain this spirit
This creature I see)
