

Secretly

Between Borders

I've been biding my time
 Been so subtly kind
I've got to think so selfishly
'Cos you're the face inside of meI've been biding my days
 You see evidently it pays
I've been a friend with unbiased views
 Then secretly lust after youSo now, you feel rusty
You're bored and bemusedYou wanna do someone else
 So you should be by yourself
Instead of here with me secretlyTrying hard to think pure
 Bloody hard when I'm raw
 You're talking out so sexually
'Bout boys and girls and your friggin' dreamsSo now, you feel lusty
 You're hot and confusedYou wanna do someone else
 So you should be by yourself
Instead of here with me secretlySo now, you've been busted
 You're caught feeling usedYou had to do someone else
 You should've been by yourself
 You had to do someone else
 You should've been by yourself
Instead of here with me secretlySecretly, secretly
