Switchblade Symphony

You don't know how to start
I don't know what to choose
You know I feel confusedJust look inside your heart
And find out who you are
You better take a stand
You better make a plan
'Cause this has gone too farWhen we went to the wishing well,
We thought we saw the lightIf you
Start, start, start to wake up,
Scream, scream, scream all you want
See, see, see what you've done
Start, start, start to wake upTo make it right for you
I don't know what to do
You tell me I'm no good
I feel misunderstoodI'm sick of taking blame
Playing the same old gameWe thought we saw the light
When we went to the wishing well,
It never came out rightBut even though we took that trip,
If you
Scream, scream, scream all you want
See, see, see what you've done
Start, start, start to wake up
Start, start, start to wake up,
Now youScream, scream, scream all you want
Start, start, start to wake up
See, see, see what you've done
Start, start, start to wake upScream, scream, scream all you want
Start, start, start to wake up
See, see, see what you've doneStart, start, start to wake up
Start, start, start to wake up
See, see, see what you've done
Scream, scream, scream all you want
Start, start...
