You're So Fine

Steve Miller Band

Saw a girl walkin' down the street
Upsettin' everybody she meet
Well, she walks up to the corner
She stops, everybody they want herShe's fine
Yes, yes, yes, she's fine
She's a fine, pretty thing
I wanna love her all the timeWell, I said tell me, baby, honey, where you goin'
She said darlin', well, I wouldn't be knowin'
She had on a long evening frock
She stopped in the street and did the [unverified] rockShe's fine
Yeah, she's fine
She's a fine, pretty thing
I wanna love that woman all the timeWell, I said tell me, baby, what you thinkin' of
She said there isn't anything greater than love
She looked at me and she gave me a smile
Shook her head and winked her eyeBut she's fine
Yes, yes, she's fine
She's a fine, pretty thing
I need to love that woman all the time
