Since You Broke It

Graham Colton Band

So tell me would you think less of me
If I said I could do without you
Tell me would you jump up and down
If I said I couldn't see you againMaybe it would hurt too much to hear
I'm not the one that you wanted
'Cause you could never get me again
Yeah, you could never get me again'Cause you know it never seems to work right
Since you broke it
I don't really get what the joke is
Can somebody fill me in?Did you think I couldn't tell you might Do just as well without me?
Tell me did you think I wouldn't mind
When I knew you were lying againSo what you gonna do with yourself move on to Someone else you can play with?
'Cause you could never get me again
Yeah, you could never get me again'Cause you know it never seems to work right
Since you broke it
I don't really get what the joke is
Can somebody fill me in?So what you gonna do with yourself move on to Someone else yeah I doubt it
You can have your next in line
'Cause I'm gonna be alright in the end'Cause you know it, it never seems to work right
Since you broke it
'Cause I don't wanna get what the joke is
Yeah I don't wanna see it'Cause you know it, It never seems to work right
Since you broke it
'Cause I don't wanna get what the joke is
Yeah, I don't wanna get what the joke is Alright
