

Tomorrow's Just Begun

Gotthard

Raise your head and look around you
You may not like what you see
A heavy load upon your shoulders
And you wont get anything for free So go on, live your life, you're one and only
Dont let anyone control
Its in your hands, you can decide it
'Cause tomorrows just begun Its in your eyes, the hope for freedom
You feel you cant go on this way
Just remember you can find me here
Everytime the blue sky color turns to gray So dont you be afraid of where youre going
Look for islands in the sun
Its in your hands and the way you ride it
'Cause tomorrows just, 'cause tomorrows just
'Cause tomorrows just begun On your way to new horizons
Youll hear the echoes of the past
Dont look back to all youve done before
'Cause wrong promises are never meant to last So go on, live your life, you're one and only
Dont let anyone control
Its in your hands, you can decide it
Oh, 'cause tomorrows just, 'cause tomorrows just
'Cause tomorrows just begun, just begun
