

Fire

Maddox

Your heart so close, I can almost taste it
Your sugar-coated emotion's amazing, but face it, I'll waste it
I don't mind lighting candles on a cold, cold night
But you don't ever say good-bye, and I don't wanna make you cry
I'm fading when I look in your eyes I tie you up, you tell me that you need my love
But I don't wanna hold you down
When will you learn? When will you learn
That you're on fire, fire, and you don't have to burn
You're on fire, fire, and you don't have to burn A tender choke can be suffocating
Your poison kisses, they drive me crazy, and don't call me baby
I don't mind getting dirty on a cold, cold night
But you don't ever say good-bye, and I don't wanna make you cry
I'm fading when I look in your eyes I tie you up, you tell me that you need my love
But I don't wanna hold you down
When will you learn? When will you learn
That you're on fire, fire, and you don't have to burn
You're on fire, fire, and you don't have to burn Don't be the one to fall
Keep looking it won't be long
Run, let your heart be whole
Take a good, good look, you're beautiful I tie you up, you tell me that you need my love
But I don't wanna hold you down
When will you learn? When will you learn
That you're on fire, fire, and you don't have to burn
You're on fire, fire, and you don't have to burn
