Pagan Lovesong

Virgin Prunes

Heathen, a pagan
No sun shines for me
Savage but gentle
The animal withinAnd I see it now
And I see it now
I had a weird dream
Watch but don't touch
I had a weird dream
I'm taking it awayPut it in a bag, hide it in a tree
Put it in a bag, hide it in a treeI want to steal your heart, your heart
With these eyes I cannot see
And this cold heart never bleeds, never, oh no, neverSweet smell this poison, the colour you bring Tongue swollen venom, to touchÃ¢?Â¦to loveAnd I see it now
And I see, see it now
I had a weird dream
Watch but don't touch
I had a weird dream
I'm taking it awayPut it in a bag, hide it in a tree
Put it in a bag, hide it in a treeI want to steal your heart
I want to eat, eat your heart
I reach for the sky but never, never can touchIt seems so easy, easy to me
Still I cannot, will not take this thing
Hearsay, this heresy
A victim to sin
Eternal the torment, the answer lies withinI had a weird dream watch but don't touch
I had a weird dream I'm taking it away
The love you give is the love, the love you get, you get
