

New Moon

House Of Heroes

I see the shadow of a tall tree fading
In the sunlit sky
I feel the aching of an old bruise healing
Blue and black as night

I will go, I will go
Where the cold wind blows
I will rise, I will rise
Where the new moon glows

I feel the ? of the breakers
Pounding me into the stone
I hear the memory of an old love
Calling me to come back home

I will go, I will go
Where the cold wind blows
I will rise, I will rise
Where the new moon glows

I will go, I will go
I will go, I will go

I will go, I will go
Where the cold wind blows
I will rise, I will rise
Where the new moon glows

I will go, I will go
Where the cold wind blows
I will rise, I will rise
Where the new moon glows

I will go, I will go
I will go, I will go
I will go, I will go
I will go, I will go
