Yamero

GRMLN

You know I'm meant to break away from nothing
I can't take away this momentary phase
Now parting is unnecessary
Drama in my head today
To separate myself
Yamero
Yamero
Yamero
Yamero
The time I need to spend alone
To deal with all
I'm not alone
To take it on myself
If I need ways to waste away
To understand the price you pay
This pleasure is my friend
