

Tired

Rollins Band

I'm so tired of myself
I'm so tired in my sleep
I'm so tired of my lies
I'm so tired of all the secrets I keep
I'm so tired of looking inside myself
Trying to find something
I'm tired so tired
And I know I need something
Because the grind is just burning me out
And I don't want to have to hurt one of them
But I'll do it 'cause I'm tired
Real tired
I'm so tired of all the things that I hear
I'm tired of the things that I fear
I've never seen the end so clear
And I'm tired real tired
'Cause I know I need something
Something, want to just this to keep me sticking around
But I'll do it
'Cause I'm getting real tired
'Cause I know I need something
You want just this
The grind is wearing me down
And I don't want to kill one of these walking insects
But I'll do it
'Cause I'm real tired and I'm not getting any better
