On the Run

WRENN

You got good aim for a bitch, Babe if it were me I'd do the same, Everyone knows what you're doing, Everyone knows who to blame, So say what you need to, but don't tell me not to and everyone knows you now, and I have who you've become, What happened to days when we asked the questions that no one could answer? We were always on the run. We were always on the run (3x) So write your name on the wall now and promise things you can't provide, I know what you mean, but say somehow. You'll think of me tomorrow night. So say what you need to, but don't tell me not to, and everyone knows you now. And I have what you've become, What happened to days when we asked the questions that no one could answer? We were always on the run. We were always on the run (4x) I know you hate me, baby. God, I'm so sorry. Lately, I know you hate me & You're not the only one. I know you hate me, baby. God, I'm so sorry. Lately, I know you hate me & You're not the only one. We were always on the run (4x).
