

In the Moment

Jim James

I'd grown
Used to the hunger I'd known
Out in the storm for so long
It started to feel like home I became Defined by the tears and the pain
But lived to be lifted again
Strange
Times can change All in the moment
No hesitation
All in the moment
No hesitation
All in the moment
No hesitation
In the moment
In the moment Grown
Came by this peace on my own
But could not have done it alone
Finally home Gone
Gone with the wind I have flown
Away from the burden I've known
Long gone All in the moment
No hesitating
All in the moment
No hesitating
All in the moment
No hesitating
In the moment
In the moment
All in the moment
No hesitating
All in the moment
No hesitating
All in the moment
No hesitating
In the moment
In the moment
In the moment
