Judas Priest

Mc Lars

Making my time on the line
Filthy with the knowledge I'm
Planting seeds, spreading disease
Rip away, tear up the beans
Ravaged
It's all so damaged
You're locked in
Disinter the ancient ways
Deaf to all that dare to pray
Ravaged
Never as savage
And that's the
Price you pay, open the door
Find the monster
Start the war
I'm bound to
Bow down to
I am become Death, destroyer of worlds
A menial place in this infinite swirl
Your pitiful lives and none more the wise
The human condition is dropping like flies
Unleashed is the beast, the worst of the least
From sheer depraved evil like Judas Priest
Having his way, my canvas unfurled
I am become Death, destroyer of worlds
Reign, reign
The ending of yours has begun
The ending of yours has begun
Who will stand with me in victory?
Chose to trust me better still
You gave your eyes your own freewill
Invulnerable, your boil conceit
I'm leaving you stunned in defeat
Ravaged
So bloody ravaged
You take this
Brutal beating at my hands
Uncivilized my victory stands

Ravaged

Never as savage
And that's the
Price you pay
Open the door
Find the monster
Start the war
I'm bound to
Bow down to
I am become Death, destroyer of worlds
A menial place in this infinite swirl
Your pitiful lives and none more the wise
The human condition is dropping like flies
Unleashed is the beast, the worst of the least
From sheer depraved evil like Judas Priest
Having his way, my canvas unfurled
I am become Death, destroyer of worlds
Reign, reign
The ending of yours has begun
The ending of yours has begun
Who will stand with me in victory?
Screaming, rapid fire genocide
Screaming, saints in Hell are running wild
Rage, the prelude had begun
Now your epitaph is sung
Pounding, monolithic fists of stone
Pounding, on the sinner to atone
Rage, the prelude had begun
Now your epitaph is sung
I am become Death, destroyer of worlds
A menial place in this infinite swirl
Your pitiful lives and none more the wise
The human condition is dropping like flies
Unleashed is the beast, the worst of the least
From sheer depraved evil like Judas Priest
Having his way, my canvas unfurled
I am become Death, destroyer of worlds
Reign, reign
The ending of yours has begun
The ending of yours has begun
Reign, reign
If you look for a monster you'll find one
The ending for all has begun
