

Poison

All Time Low

I've got a house in the back of my head
But I can't find a permanent resident
'Cause the markets down
And the area's not so good these days I've got a watch but I don't have time
I got a road and it leads to decadence
But a dead end sign waits down the line
I leave my footprints for the evidence So take my life, I'll hand it to you
And you can try on my clothes
But you can't fill these shoes On a silver platter, your wish came true
So your heart of gold turned platinum
You can take my life but you can't take it with you More long days and fleeting nights
So tell them, wake me under flashing lights
'Cause I'm a brand name bought and sold They say a face for fame is a crying shame
Because to face the crowd is to play their game
And I can play a little too rough now and again
Every now and again You drank the poison and I let you in So take my life, I'll hand it to you
And you can try on my clothes
But you can't fill these shoes On a silver platter, your wish came true
So your heart of gold turned platinum
You can take my life but you can't take it with you You drank the poison and I, I let you in
Would you trade that heart of gold for a minute in my skin?
You drank the poison and I, I let you in
Would you trade that heart of gold for a minute in my skin? So take my life, I'll hand it to you
And you can try on my clothes
But you can't fill these shoes On a silver platter, your wish came true
So your heart of gold turned platinum
You can take my life but you can't take it with you
