

Let It Go

Andrew Maxwell Morris

Some people say
You may never change your ways
But it takes more time
To forget all youâ€™ve learnt, most of your life.
So I start to grow
Into the man that I have met, not the man I used to know.

So I let it go
So I let it go
So I let it go
I let it go.

Now I turn away
Going forward to the future, getting closer every day.
She may call my name
I canâ€™t hear her crying, cause it always sounds the same.
Love is a simple word;
And it gives you what you need, not what you deserve.

I let it go
I let it go
I let it go
let it go.
