

Little Bobby

Dynamite Boy

little bobby's on the front porch sitting alone, he's got nobody takes a drink from his water glass and cries to himself, he's so lonely doesn't really want to wait he's gotta find somebody before it gets too late bobby's never had a girlfriend never a date, he sits home alone never been to the movies or stayed up late, talking on the phone doesn't really want to wait
he's gotta find somebody before it gets too late
 he's singing la, la, la.... bangs his head against a wall til he sees stars, but it does no good only twelve years young, but he thinks he's old i'd help if i could
 doesn't really want to wait
he's gotta find somebody before it gets too late
 he's singing la, la, la.... all his friends tell him everything he needs to hear, but bobby don't listen if he ever has to choose between his friends or a girl, he won't miss them doesn't really want to wait
 he's singing la, la, la....
