

Crystal Colorado

Alpha Rev

Well it gets cold yeah it gets cold when my lone voice echoes like the thunder is it just in a dream am I just asleep cause it has changed like the open sky I'm under Well I'm comin down yeah I'm comin down
I need a castle in the air like a crystal Colorado you take me there Maybe I'm a hopeless case counting my days it only takes one moment to surrender don't wanna go out like this wonderin if it's hit or miss prayin that the rain comes down so I remember Well I'm comin down yeah I'm comin down
I need a castle in the air
Like a crystal Colorado you take me there
